Nigel Hudson Photography

At Nigel Hudson Photography we believe that every organisation has a unique story to tell.

Our photography service is focused upon bringing that story to life, creating images that communicate and not simply decorate.

We work with Conceptualise to help their clients build a strong visual identity and create images that tell their story in a way that is truthful, engaging and defining.

I have been a professional photographer for twenty-five years and have worked with many top brands such as British Gas, Sainsbury's, Barclays and Royal Bank of Canada.

I set up Nigel Hudson Photography as a low cost, high value alternative to using generic stock photography. We can provide Conceptualise clients with an entire portfolio of images for the same as it could cost to purchase a single rights managed image from any of the world's leading stock libraries.

Additionally, Nigel Hudson Photography images are licensed exclusively to clients.

That means that they take control over how, when and where they are used ... across all media.
